Flippin' Fiddler headed to Haliburton

Renowned Canadian fiddle champion Scott Woods and his all-star band present Fiddling Up A Storm.

This uplifting two hour Branson-style live show features lots of Canadian old time fiddle music, traditional country songs, western swing tunes, country gospel favourites, fancy instrumentals, sweet harmonies, smooth vocals, sensational step dancing, family humour, inspirational stories, and of course some of Woods's famous trick fiddling – front and back somersaults and walking on a barrel – all while playing the fiddle! You will hear the flurry of fast fingers on a fiddle or guitar similar to a hurricane or twister, or maybe the calm before the storm.

Joining Woods onstage in Fiddling Up A Storm is his sister, Kendra (Woods) Norris – a multi-instrumentalist and certainly no stranger to old time fiddling, having won the Canadian Duet Fiddle Championship title three times with Scott, as well as several solo wins in various classes including the 2016 Canadian Open (19 - 55 division). Also onstage are Canadian Country Music Award winner and Guitar Player of the Year Steve Piticco; bass player Peter Sisk, Canadian Country Music Award winner and Drummer of the Year, Bill Carruthers and champion step dancer 13-year-old Leo Stock.

Scott Woods is a two-time winner of the Canadian Open Fiddle Contest, two-time winner of the Canadian Grand Masters Fiddle Championship as well as Fiddle Entertainer of the Year. He is known affectionately as "The Flippin' Fiddler" and tours extensively across Canada and the U.S. every year raising funds for churches, charities and community service organizations. Woods and the band also tour in Germany.

The not-to-be-missed show takes place on Tuesday, June 19 at 7 p.m. at the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion. Concert proceeds support Canoe FM and is presented by the "Church in Haliburton."

Tickets are $25 for adults, $10 for children (age six to 12) and children five and under get in free.

Advance tickets are on sale now by calling Jim at 705-457-9933 or toll free at 1-855-726-8896 to charge by phone. Tickets can also be purchased in Haliburton at Cranberry Cottage or at Canoe FM.

Cottage Country Yarn Crawl comes to Haliburton

OLIVIA ROBINSON
County Life Staff

Ready...set...knit! Haliburton's own JanKnit's Studio is one of eight stops along the Cottage Country Yarn Crawl that runs from June 9 to Sept. 3. /OLIVIA ROBINSON Staff

So you've heard of a pub or beer crawl – but what about a yarn crawl? This summer, a unique pilgrimage offers crafty day-trippers the opportunity to explore some of cottage country's best yarn shops – and the chance to win a prize.

Eight yarn shops are participating in the inaugural Cottage Country Yarn Crawl. The event runs from June 9 to Sept. 3 – and includes Haliburton's own JanKnit's Studio.

Janet Sheehey, owner of JanKnit's Studio, was asked to join the crawl last year. She hopes to get other Haliburton businesses on board with the crawl.

"Anything that's going to bring people into Haliburton I'm alright with," she said. "It's hard to get people to come to a small town because people think there's nothing to do here, but anything like a website and Twitter really helps."

Yarn crawlers are asked to download the Cottage Country Yarn Crawl passport from their website so that when they visit the shops, they can get their passport stamped.

Once crawlers have collected eight stamps on their passport, they are eligible to win a grand prize. Even if crawlers can't make it to all eight shops before Sept. 3, participants can still submit their incomplete passports to win one of three runner-up prizes.

The other seven stores partaking in the yarn crawl include Aberdeen's Wool Company (Lindsay), Between 2 Lakes Yarn & Crafts (Fenelon Falls), Granny Birds Wool Shoppe (Bobcaygeon), Happenstance Books & Yarns (Lakefield), Muskoka Yarn Connection (Bracebridge), Needles In The Hay (Peterborough), and Sheldridge Yarns (Woodville).

The Cottage Country Yarn Crawl promises the event is an "ideal setting for a relaxing road trip this summer through the back roads of Ontario." Crawlers are also encouraged to pick up official crawl buttons and a clue at each shop in order to knit a "Mystery Crawl Cowl."

JanKnit's Studio is closed Sundays and Mondays in June, but closed only on Sundays starting in July. For more information and to download a yarn crawl passport, visit http://cottagecountryyarncrawl.blogspot.com/.

Special gift for busy hands

Over the winter, the Canadian Federation of University Women knitting interest group created 30 knitted and crocheted twiddlemuffs to be donated to Hyland Crest long-term care in Minden. These are muffs made with many different colours and textures of wool to keep hands warm and with decorative fiddly items sewn on for busy fingers to twiddle with. They were originally created in England to give dementia patients something to do with their active hands. As well as the twiddlemuffs, a lap blanket was made and included in the donation. 11 Critical Home Inspection Traps to be Aware of Weeks Before Listing Your Haliburton Highlands Home or Cottage for Sale

Haliburton - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free (800) 611-8516 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

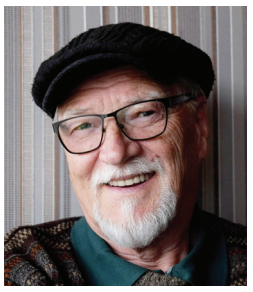
RAILS END GALLERY & ARTS CENTRE

Brightside meets the night at the AJG



GEORGE FARRELL

On Arts

EVERY ONCE in a while Laurie Carmount, curator at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery in Minden, creates exhibitions that combine two artists. She's done it again with Notes from the Brightside Neighbourhood Project, and Nocturnal Reflections, by artists Matt McInnes and Rob Niezen respectively. Although they are two individual exhibitions the subject matter is the same: the urban landscape. "I saw a comparativeness that would drive dialogue," Carmount said of the pairing. "People come in and they get it."

McInnes uses printmaking to visually document hybridized urban landscapes and buildings in transition. Brightside refers to a workers' neighbourhood that once flourished, from 1905 until the mid 1960s, in the shadow of a heavily industrialized Hamilton. Brightside, home to many immigrant workers, was ultimately demolished in the '60s and '70s to make room for the expansion of the Stelco steel factory.

Through a group called the Brightside Collective, and in co-operation with Brightsiders and other researchers, Brightside stories were collected. McInnes's work in the AJG focuses on his contribution to the Brightside Neighbourhood Project which aims to celebrate and remember the iconic Hamilton neighbourhood through art, research and community engagement. McInnes's visual documentation shows maps of the neighbourhood, screen-printed images of former Brightside residents, stores, and various other landmarks, past and present.

The overall look and feel of Notes from the Brightside Neighbourhood Project, is one of greyness, because all the images are rendered in tones of grey. There is very little colour, which is perhaps fitting for the era when Hamilton was seen as a grey, murky city, full of industrial pollution. McInnes's pieces, however, are anything but murky, and in fact are rather explicitly delivered with a real understanding of the stories from Brightsiders and the architectural structures in which they lived, shopped and worked.

Rob Niezen's Nocturnal Reflections consist of night-time, rainy cityscapes featuring roads and streets, gas stations, automobiles, and people in silhouette. "My nocturnes show the dream world of our cities created by artificial lights. Rainy night reflections create bursts of colour and reveal our theatrical surroundings," Neizen says in his artist statement.

Camiletti's Store by Matt McInnes

Night Crossing by Rob Niezen

Niezen's oils are indeed theatrical, and he understands that the use of black paint works every time in helping to create a dramatic effect. So what you get visually with Nocturnal Reflections are the slashes and reflective puddles of reds, greens and yellows created by artificial light from such sources as theatre marquees, automobile and street lights; set in the black backdrop of night. The works are quite stunning, and evoke those bright lights-big city memories, out on the town. Many of us at one time or another have experienced what Niezen is showing us, and his images remind us of those experiences in a way that captures the very essence of those times.

By juxtaposing Matt McInnes and Rob Niezen, Carmount has added an urban intrigue to this particular gallery experience, in direct contrast to the usual rural landscapes so often seen in our galleries. But don't take my word for it, go and see what you think, when the Brightside meets the night. The exhibitions at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery run until July 2.

Top 10 conversation starters with a two-year-old

STEVE GALEA
Humour Columnist

THIS WEEK, I'll be spending time with my grandson who's rapidly approaching two. The young fellow has picked up a lot of words and worldly experience since I saw him last. So I hope to have a few serious conversations with him when there's a lull in fun. Here are my top 10 starters.

1. Nothing like wearing spaghetti, huh?
2. You're not serious about that girl, are you?
3. You drive stick?
4. You've got to walk before you run, am I right?
5. Hate to tell you this, but you'll wear diapers again one day.
6. Here's something refreshing: Grandpa only had to walk three blocks to school.
7. When you call me a poo-poo head, you demean me as a person.
8. It's called reciprocity. I mean, why do I always have to jingle the keys?
9. You know, you're getting damn good at peekaboo.
10. So, Yanny or Laurel?

Paths to our past

KATE BUTLER
Special to County Life

Since 2009, June has been marked across Canada as National Indigenous History Month. It's vitally important to remember, not only this month, but every day, that Canada's history extends back far earlier than the sesquicentennial we marked last year.

A knowledge of the full history of this land and the people who have lived and continue to live here should always inform the narrative we tell of our community.

Over the last several months, I've had the pleasure of working closely with David Beaucage Johnson, a student from Trent University and resident of Curve Lake First Nation, who has been helping us better tell the story of Indigenous settlement in Haliburton County.

Working with David has helped me to see the county's landscape in a whole new light and inspired a research project for this summer with which we'd like to ask for your help.

Many of our current roads are built on earlier routes known as miikan, which have helped people to navigate our landscape for hundreds, if not thousands, of years.

Miikan were traditionally marked out by miikan tig or marker trees which assisted messengers, traders and travellers in finding their way.

These trees were traditionally oak and their shape was altered by bending a young sapling to create a unique and highly identifiable shape as the tree grew.

Miikan tig are not unique to Haliburton County – they are in fact found across the whole of North America.

In the last few months, since word about our interest in these trees started to come to light, a few people have contacted me, letting me know that they know of locations of these markers within the county.

Seeing them offers us a glimpse into our community's past and inspires one to wonder what might have taken place along these routes throughout history.

We're extremely excited to begin a database of these landmarks, so we ask you in the coming months to keep your eyes open. If you see a marker tree (or even just what you suspect might be a marker tree), please snap a picture for us and make a few notes as to its location, then send the details along to us at the museum (info@haliburtonhighlandsmuseum.com).

Would you like to learn more? We invite you to join us on June 23 at 2 p.m. at the museum, when David Beaucage Johnson will be joining us to present a special talk on Indigenous settlement in the county.

We guarantee that it will be an afternoon that will enhance your understanding of our community and its rich and diverse story. Everyone is welcome and the event is free of charge – we look forward to seeing you there!

Kate Butler is director of the Haliburton Highlands Museum.

Janet Trull on reading, writing, and lake loyalties

OLIVIA ROBINSON
County Life Staff

Janet Trull, author of the book Hot Town and other stories, delivered a lunch and learn at the Bonnie View Inn on June 6. The event was presented by the Friends of the Haliburton County Public Library. /OLIVIA ROBINSON Staff

Janet Trull, author of Hot Town and other stories and regular Haliburton Echo contributor, was on-hand at Bonnie View Inn June 6 to deliver a lively lunch and learn session, presented by the Friends of the Haliburton County Public Library.

Trull's opinion pieces, short stories, and columns have appeared in publications across the country and in 2013 she won the CBC Canada Writes challenge.

Trull spoke to the importance of reading and having books in the home and the joy of reading itself, like reading for pleasure, to inform, and to belong.

"When I was growing up, the library was a library of friends for me," said Trull. She admired spunky literary heroines such as Nancy Drew, Anne Shirley and Jane Eyre. As a child, Trull said she could easily relate to the story of Jane Eyre and its depiction of mental illness, since her own father had bipolar disorder.

"Knowing that other people struggle and get through it … you understand that you can get through it, too," she said.

The author reflected on her fascination for other people's stories, and how some stories from her teenage years in Dunnville found their way into her book. Trull drew some parallels between Dunnville – a small town about an hour south of Hamilton – and Haliburton.

"Listening in Haliburton is not hard to do because everybody in Haliburton is a fantastic storyteller."

Trull shared a trove of stories with the audience, including how she met her husband in Haliburton and the loyalty that Haliburton residents have to their lakes – and how leaving them is like getting a divorce.

Now, Trull is coaching a paralympian so she can write her own story. She's also working on her novel, titled Canadian Saint – inspired by Leonard Cohen's writing – which is now in the editing stages.

International paddling film festival coming to Haliburton

Algonquin Outfitters presents the 13th annual Paddling Film Festival at the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion, located in the high school in Haliburton on Saturday, June 16 at 7:30 p.m. (doors open at 6:30 p.m.).

The Paddling Film Festival is an international adventure film tour presenting the world's best paddling films of the year – whitewater, sea kayaking, canoeing, SUP, action and lifestyle – in more than 120 cities and towns across Canada, United States and around the world.

With 20 inspiring paddling films shortlisted for the World Tour, including the 10 festival category winners, audiences will see hairy whitewater action, sea kayakers exploring remote coastlines, northern river canoe expeditions, international river travel films, motivating environmental documentaries, grueling kayak fishing battles and hilarious short films capturing the lighter side of paddling life.

Attracting paddlers and outdoor enthusiasts, audiences can expect a fun, social and entertaining event inspired by compelling films like:

Chasing Wild – Three friends set off on a 400-kilometre bikepacking and packraft expedition to understand what is at stake as new mines are developed across the Sacred Headwaters; Connected By Canoe – The canoe has many lessons to teach, such as "we're all in the same boat" – can it also help Canadians of all backgrounds, regions and beliefs build an equitable, sustainable and inclusive future?; Dugout – Two friends come up with a simple plan: travel to the Ecuadorian Amazon, live with an Indigenous community, learn how to build a canoe, then go on an adventure; Freedom – When avid kayaker Emily faces the biggest challenge of her life she shows us how to live without regrets; Inside The Indus – Adventure kayakers Aniol Serrasolses, Mike Dawson and Ciaran Heurteau venture into the Rondu Gorge on the Indus River in Northern Pakistan to take on extreme whitewater; I*nto Twin Galaxies* – Using kite skis, three National Geographic Adventurers Of The Year tow their whitewater kayaks more than 1,000 kilometres on the Greenland Ice Cap to reach the most northern river ever paddled; Return From Desolation – The story of an Afghan War vet who fought his way back from addiction and certain death through the wild, serpentine rivers of the American Southwest; The Time Travellers – The USA Rafting Team has never won a world championship, but that didn't stop them from attempting to break a legendary speed record through the Grand Canyon.

The Paddling Film Festival World Tour is produced by Rapid Media and presented in Haliburton by Algonquin Outfitters on Saturday, June 16, at 7:30 p.m. (Doors open at 6:30 p.m.).

For tickets and information call Algonquin Outfitters at 705-457-3737 or visit www.algonquinoutfitters.com.

Returns for Leukemia

Mike LeBlanc chatted with Rick Ashall while collecting donations and returns of beer, wine and spirits containers at the Minden Beer Store on May 26, as part of the Returns for Leukemia Bottle Drive. The 13th annual province-wide event raised funds for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of Canada fighting blood cancers. In total, Ontario beer stores have raised $16 million for the cause. The Beer Stores raised $1,662 last year. / SUE TIFFIN Staff

Join the Walk for Water in Minden Hills

Help A Village Effort invites the Haliburton Highlands community to join them in raising money to bring clean drinking water to those in need in India.

The situation in India is dire; more than 75 million Indians do not have access to clean drinking water. Money raised goes to non-governmental organizations on the ground, which install wells where they are most needed.

Help A Village Effort, or HAVE for short, is a Minden-based volunteer-run charity. Its goal is to improve the lives of people in rural India who are living with water scarcity.

Since it was created 36 years ago, HAVE has funded the creation of 1,250 wells.

This month, there are several ways you can help out.

On Saturday, June 16, head to Gelert for the Food and Beverage Showcase, held at Wintergreen Pancake Barn between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Enjoy food, craft beer, coffee, ice cream and other delicacies from local vendors set up on the property. There will be live music and a silent auction. Admission is $20 (or $50 for families) with proceeds being divided between HAVE and Fuel for Warmth. Go to www.highlandsfoodfest.com for details.

On Tuesday, June 19, join Zion United Church as they Walk for Water in Minden. The fundraiser starts at the Minden library branch at 7 p.m. with participants walking the Riverwalk path along Invergordon and Water streets in town. Collect pledges and join in! Contact carolynlangdon3@gmail.com for sponsor sheets.

On Friday, June 22, students at Archie Stouffer Elementary School will be doing a Walk for Water along the Riverwalk in Minden. Students will be walking from 1 to 2 p.m. HAVE would be pleased if community members pledged the students who are walking. For more details on the ASES walk, contact Michele Coneybeare at 705-286-1921.

Call for volunteers: Celebration of Women's Voting Rights

It has been 100 years since the federal vote was granted to most Canadian women. May 24, 1918 was a turning point for women's rights in this country, part of a larger struggle for universal suffrage. (Asian men and women were not allowed to vote until after the Second World War and Indigenous people could not vote until 1960.)

To mark the occasion and highlight the sacrifices made by women to obtain the vote (and to encourage continued progress), a group has come together to hold A Celebration of Women's Voting Rights on Saturday, Sept. 15.

An historical suffrage re-enactment, parade (with music) through downtown Minden, followed by a light lunch with tea are being planned. To honour the generations of women who have rallied and fought for equality, some parade participants will be wearing period costumes.

Volunteers are needed to make this special event happen. Tasks range from the theatrical (wearing a period costume and marching with the parade) to technical (doing research and helping to write speeches). And of course, on the day of the event, organizers would like to see as many women, men and kids participate as possible. (Street clothes and a love of equality is all you need to join in!)

Mark your calendar for the Celebration of Women's Voting Rights in Minden Saturday, Sept. 15 and keep an eye out for more details as the date comes closer.

For those willing to help out, contact Laurie Carmount at the Minden Hills Cultural Centre: 705-286-3763 or gallery@mindenhills.ca.

Public meeting told

Committee pursuing inquiries from MDs

by Andrew Milne

An ad-hoc committee organized to bring doctors into the Minden area announced last week that they have been contacted by interested physicians.

Community Committee for Physicians (CCP) members were unable however to confirm how far along negotiations are.

Also announced during the meeting: the Ministry of Health (MOH) has informed the eight reeves of the catchment area of the Minden hospital that minister Ruth Grier will not be taking the time to visit them to resolve the region's health care crisis. The reeves had been pressing the Health Minister for assistance regarding the closing of the in-patient services at the Minden Hospital. Their letter was sent May 1 and, until just a day before the meeting, they had not received a reply.

The CCP made the announcement about the inquiries at a public meeting May 24 at Archie Stouffer Elementary School, an information session held to announce to residents of the Minden area what progress has been made. CCP member Doug Campbell said they had received the inquiries — to advertisements placed in medical trade publications — only shortly before the meeting.

The CCP told the meeting that its mandate does not concern so much the status of the hospital, as attracting physicians to the region and keeping them here — something they hope to achieve by making physicians aware of the need in the community and the benefits of locating here. The committee has placed advertisements in a number of medical journals inviting inquiries from doctors.

More than 300 people attended the May 24 meeting and heard presentations from CCP members Jeanne Anthon (also reeve of Anson, Hindon, and Minden), Jack Brezina, Campbell, Brian Kernohan, and Ted Wilkes.

Foster Loucks, executive director of the Acting Health Services Board (AHSB), a body formed to take over the operation of hospital services in Haliburton County following their divestment from St. Joseph's, was also present, to speak to the public for the first time since being hired to the position May 1. Many hands make...

.....LIGHT WORK: not that this group of Toronto and Hamilton area people didn't already know that from their business experience. They are members of the Toronto Junior Board, a group of young entrepreneurs who donated their time and muscle this past weekend to erect a health centre at Camp Wanakita. Close to 80 members of the organization were on hand for the three day building bee which saw the 1800 square foot exterior of the structure completed by Sunday. A second group of volunteers will arrive at the camp next weekend to complete the interior work. For more pictures of the work in progress see page 21

Contract awarded for county building renovations

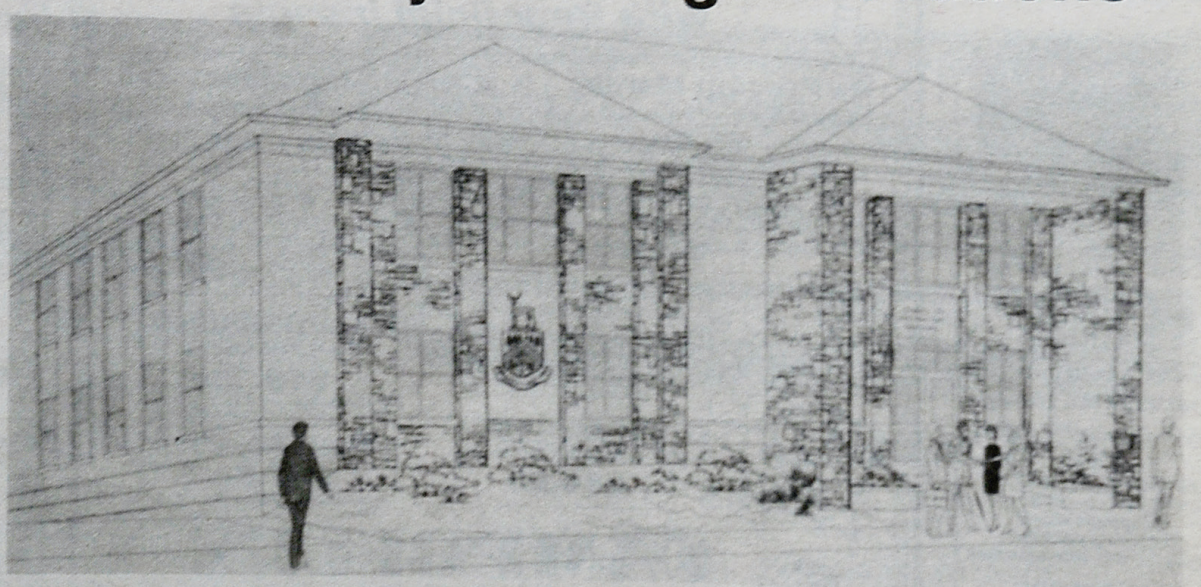
The contract for the renovations and addition to the Haliburton County Administration Building has been awarded to Rodco Enterprise of Haliburton.

Three companies were invited to make presentations during a closed session of County Council last Thursday. The majority of council members favoured the Rodco plan, which came in at $702,800, including GST.

Acting County Administrator Ross Rigney said that all three of the proposals were very close in quality and price but it was the aesthetics of the Rodco design, which kept the character of the present building, that won council's endorsement.

A resolution was passed accepting the Rodco proposal, subject to final approval of the infrastructure grant by the federal government. The provincial government has already given its approval.

County councillors Eleanor Harrison and Murray Fearrey declared conflict of interest in the matter since they both are involved in the building supply business.



NEW LOOK: This is an artist's concept of how the front of the Haliburton County administration building will look after the expansion and renovations are completed. County Council endorsed this $700,000 project last Thursday.
